Linear Algebra

- Singular Value Decomposition can be used for image compression.

- The determinant of a matrix indicates how much the area would change if the matrix were applied to a shape.

- The eigenvalues are defined by the equation $|\lambda I - A| = 0$.